

HSUS/VICK TIMELINE

July 17, 2007
Michael Vick indicted

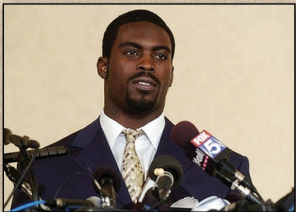

July 18, 2007
HSUS fundraises on the promise to "care for" Vick's dogs.

August 1, 2007
Wayne Pacelle tells The New York Times that HSUS recommended the dogs be "put down" (killed).

August 24, 2007
Vick files papers to plead guilty to conspiracy charges

July 20, 2009
Vick finished serving sentence

August 13, 2009
Philadelphia Eagles sign Vick

October 2009
Eagles launch "Treating Animals With Kindness" program that gives HSUS $50,000 "grant"

December 15, 2010
Wayne Pacelle tells an Atlanta Journal-Constitution reporter that Michael Vick "would do a good job as a pet owner"

May 11, 2011
Pacelle claims he was "misquoted" in Atlanta Journal-Constitution story

May 12, 2011
The Atlanta Journal-Constitution reporter states that "We have not corrected the story nor have we had any requests to correct it."

The Humane Society of the United States has a controversial history with convicted dogfighting kingpin Michael Vick. When Vick was initially indicted, HSUS exploited the case to raise money under questionable circumstances. And more disturbing, HSUS has since partnered with Vick, with HSUS president Wayne Pacelle even saying Vick would be a good pet owner.

2008
The Pennsylvania SPCA reports 237 animal-fighting investigations.

2009
PSPCA reports 836 animal-fighting investigations, a rise of nearly 300 percent from 2008. Most are dog-fighting cases in Philadelphia.

2010
PSCPA animal-fighting investigations increase to 1,177, a nearly 400 percent jump from 2008.

2007

2008

2009

2010

2011